

AUTHOR SPOTLIGHT ROCHESTER'S WRITERS

Sharon Grace: Webster resident works as a professional speaker and a hairstylist at Maplewood Nursing & Rehabilitation.

Most recent published work: When the Trust is Broken (Grace Group, $17.95).

Synopsis: This is my story — a grandmother's story — of the experiences and events that have shaped my life, including the sexual abuse of my 4-year-old granddaughter in a day care center. In these pages I share my trials and tribulations and provide insight into overcoming life's adversities, as well as what to do when the unthinkable comes out of nowhere.

Inspiration: I was inspired by personal experience and tragedy and the impact it had on my family.

Advice for aspiring writers: Always follow your heart and follow your passion.

Helping others will truly make a difference.
